Speakers

Rod Tomlinson – 'Night Echo'

Rod has spent the last forty years working in Steiner educational initiatives in Australia as a primary Class teacher and as a secondary specialist teacher and guardian, as well as in management and governance. His love for Steiner education is informed by a dedicated study of Steiner's original thinking on teaching and education and how they might find meaningful expression today.

Michelle Vette – 'Re-semblance'

Michelle co-coordinates the Foundation Course in Anthroposophical Nursing at Taruna College, NZ. She is currently doing research for her Masters in Nursing and is the General Secretary for the Anthroposophical Society in New Zealand.

Maria Garrido – 'From Vulnerability to resilience (the experience of life unfolding)'

Maria holds a Masters in Mysticism and Human Sciences, a Diploma in Counselling and a Graduate Diploma in Arts Therapy.

Brian Keats – 'Seeds and the Human Being' + star gazing in the evening

Brian has a deep knowledge of Biodynamics and is a Spiritual scientist. His research enables the creation of his annual BD/astronomy calendar.
