

Heartfire Centre For Speech And Drama Presents

About Workshop

Michael Chekhov's acting tools integrated with Rudolf Steiner's approach to speech and eurythmy allow teachers and performers to find, in the richness of Shakespeare's language, the processes for character development and interaction which reveal the depths of soul and spirit out of which his characters are formed. Please note that it is possible to register for just 1, 2 or all 3 of the 'Midsummer Night's Dream' workshops as although each one will build on what has gone before it can also be experienced as complete in itself.
