

South Australia Program

Time	Event	Venue
1pm to 4pm	Field day open to the public. The event will be in 5 parts. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ueli Hurter will open the afternoon with a talk on Biodynamics which may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ how BD can help with the challenges we face now and in the future ○ Contrasting conventional, organic, and biodynamic farming method and outcomes ○ Healing and regenerative aspects of BD principles and practices ○ BD Farming in dry regions like Sekem in Egypt • BD practitioners will be invited to talk about their experiences in working with BD • Farm walk to view the vineyard, vegetable fields, Highland cattle, sheep, chickens, olive trees and extensive revegetation areas. Led by Erinn Klein. • Ueli Hurter will talk again and may cover <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ The dynamic interface of BD, permaculture and regenerative agriculture ○ Making nutrient dense food affordable ○ Making BD farming affordable ○ Cost of living issues demand creative solution focused strategies and practices • Social event with food and wine tastings to close 	Ngeringa Farm and Vineyard, Mount Barker SA
7pm to 9pm	Public talk - Biodynamic Responses to The Climate Crisis - Agricultural, Social and Planetary Healing The talk may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The effects of separating humans from nature, and strategies to turn this around • Contrasting conventional, organic, and biodynamic farming method and outcomes • Healing and regenerative aspects of BD principles and practices • Enlivenment and enhancement of living systems • BD working with soil, soul and social forces • The dynamic interface of BD, permaculture and regenerative agriculture • Making BD nutrient dense food affordable • Giving examples including Sekem Farm in Egypt 	Venue in Adelaide TBA