

Biodynamics Tasmania Program

Please contact Bio-Dynamics Tasmania: Trevor Crowe or phone Cole Bradshaw on 0429 961 125.

Wednesday 8 th May	Thursday 9 th May	Friday 10 th May
1:00pm Acknowledgement of Country/Smoking Ceremony – Magical Farm Tasmania (*Allens Rivulet)	10:00-11:30am Greg Whitten’s Bronzewing Herb Farm (*Allens Rivulet) (various topics related to medicinal and preps herbs, caring for preps, qualities and functions of sheaths)	9:00-11:00am Ueli’s reflection, discussion and launch of the BDTas development plan. Tarremah Steiner School (Huntingfield)
1:15-2:15 Welcome Lunch – Magical Farm Tasmania	12:00-1:00 pm Lunch – Raphael Centre (*Margate)
2:15 – 4:00 pm Caring for Country Roundtable and storytelling (various brief presentations and discussions: deep listening, astronomy, spiritual underpinnings of BD, experimental native plant preps, etc) Other activities include: a Steiner spiral garden meditation and a dialogue weaving activity. Magical Farm Tasmania	1:00-2:30 pm Future directions for Anthroposophy and community. Raphael Centre
4:00-5:00pm Afternoon Tea and CPP stir, spray and BD yarning	3:00-4:30 pm BD conversations while building a BD compost heap at Tarremah Steiner School (27 Nautilus drive, Huntingfield 7055) (future directions of BD in schools, BD education and traineeships, etc)
	4:45-5:30 pm BD Bee Keeping (with finger food Tarremah Steiner School - Huntingfield)
7:00-9:00 Ueli Hurter public presentation 1 – BD responses to the climate crisis and social and planetary healing (Venue TBC) Sub-topics may include: · The effects of separating humans from nature, and strategies to turn this around · Contrasting conventional, organic, and biodynamic farming method and outcomes	7:00-9:00 Ueli Hurter public presentation (Venue TBC) 2 – Economic models, challenges and opportunities of building regenerative BD food secure communities Sub-topics may include: · Cost of living issues demand creative solution focused strategies and practices

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Healing and regenerative aspects of BD principles and practices · Enlivenment and enhancement of living systems · BD working with soil, soul and social forces · Moving from conflictual to harmonious dynamics in farming/gardening and social contexts 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Experience, skills, training, tools, products, energy as capital · Alternative farming/gardening models to land ownership and succession planning · Transitioning from individualism to community sustainability to regenerative farming and social connection and security · The dynamic interface of BD, permaculture and regenerative agriculture · Making nutrient dense food affordable · Making BD farming affordable
---	--	--