

Annual Erwin Berney Oration Fundraiser

Rudolf Steiner House
307 Sussex, St. Sydney
Saturday August 23, 2025
3.00 – 5.30 pm

'Beyond 100 years, what is being asked of us now?'

All the gifts of Spiritual Science brought by Rudolf Steiner have lit our pathways of consciousness and enlivened our initiatives.

Our biographies are shaped by this.

As members of the Anthroposophical Society, are we awake to the call of the time?

Jane Bradshaw has been the General Secretary of the Anthroposophical Society in Australia since 2020. She grew up in Lutruwita (Tasmania). Jane is a qualified nurse who is interested in caring at the threshold periods of life. Jane has completed her Anthroposophical Nursing training and am currently on the Anthroposophical Nurse Specialist pathway. Caring is her signature for her role in the society. As well as having been in many leadership roles, communicating with the various groups around Australia she shares the unique expression of the Southern Hemisphere with the global Anthroposophical community.
