

The Human Journey

14 JUNE 2022 - 2 JULY 2022

A mid-winter experience based on the story of Parzival's struggles and encounters in life.

Lectures, artistic performances and workshops and an artworks exhibition on three floors for friends and the public.
All welcome.

Rudolf Steiner House,
307 Sussex Street, Sydney.

This event is supported by the Sydney Branch of the Anthroposophical Society in Australia, Sydney Rudolf Steiner College, and the Arts Initiative in Australia.

Lectures, workshops and events are free of charge.
Donations are welcome to cover costs.

We thank all the many artists, presenters, supporters and volunteers for this event.

There is a $10 materials charge for the two artistic workshops on Saturday 25 June

Registration is essential on 9550 1682

Layout and printing by El Faro Printing
79 King Street, Newtown

TUESDAY 14 JUNE

6.00: Art Exhibition Open

7.00: Musical Opening

Lecture: David Wansbrough

“Humans as an unfinished work of art”

We can express ourselves or, as artists, can deny self-expression to attempt a tentative glimpse of the unknown universal... some humans find essential the insecurity and vulnerability of art.

7.00: TUESDAY 21 JUNE

Eurythmy: Calendar of the Soul (R.Steiner)

Lisa Devine and group

Performance on the theme:

Joanna Jaaniste

Lecture: Jolyon Bromley

“Insights from the Parzival Story”

The Parzival Story is a wonderful story of the archetypal stages and experiences of the individual's life journey and gives insights into the broader, collective development of humankind towards the consciousness soul.

7.00: TUESDAY 28 JUNE

Eurythmy Offering:

I look into the darkness

In it light arises

Living light

Who is the light within the darkness?

It is “I” myself in my reality.

This “I” reality comes not within my earthly life

I am its image only

Yet I shall find it once again

When I, with goodwill towards the spirit,

Have passed the gate of death.

(R.Steiner)

Lecture: Fiona Campbell

“Out of the Wasteland to the Perilous Chapel”

Art and literary texts exploring key motifs of the Parzival journey

SATURDAY 25 JUNE

10.00: Lecture: Karla Cryer

In the human journey, we evolve individually through seven-year phases, and these phases are reflected in the collective evolutionary journey. Trace the emergence of your life task through these phases and gain insights into the emerging collective task,

11.30 Tea break

12.00 Lecture: Jolyon Bromley and Diane Watkin

“Parzival and the Planets”

1.00: Lunch break (shops nearby)

1.00: Guided tour of the exhibition (until 1.45pm)

2.00: Maureen Ten: “Moving among mysteries”
Poetry afternoon of contributing poets

Diane Watkin: Artistic workshops:
in the upstairs studio (limit 12)

2.00: Watercolour painting:
Can we learn anything from the eye of Jupiter?

3.30: Charcoal drawing:
“I look into the darkness”

5.00: Lecture: Wolfgang Devine

“Inner life - the source of outer life”

Why do I need an inner life? and how can I create it? It is not just mindfulness - a step from being schooled to self-schooling.