

Brisbane Branch of the Anthroposophical Society Invites you to a workshop
Experiencing Light, Colour & Darkness as a path of Spiritual Development & Healing

With Julie Lovett

Beginning with your own painting, other things will happen, developing towards social art experiences working with Pastel, Watercolour, Nature Study and Poetry
No previous artistic experience necessary

On Saturday May 26 from 10.00 - 3.00

Venue: Arana Hills and 2.5 kms – a half an hour Walk – from Grovelly Station
Full address will be given on receipt of your application to anthroposqld@gmail.com

Cost : $25 [includes all materials]

Tea and coffee provided.

Please bring something to share for lunch

RSVP : anthroposqld@gmail.com by Friday - May 18th

Julie Lovett has been a dedicated student of Anthroposophy for other 35 years working as an Art Therapist, Steiner Teacher, Steiner Teacher Trainer, Educational Manager and Director of Rudolf Steiner College in Sydney.

For more information about Julie and her work go to <http://www.julielovett.com.au/>