

Songs from the Realm of Light is an initiative designed to bring together anyone in our community with an interest in Rudolf Steiner's work. We encourage presenters to explore contemporary topics of both personal interest and wider relevance based on their own personal research and investigation. All presentations have a creative, interactive or artistic dimension.

The South Golden Beach hall will be open at 1.45 and all sessions will begin promptly at 2.00 and run for two hours. Below is the plan for the year – some sessions may change:

- February 14 – Fiona Maunder (Astrosophist) : Speaking to the Stars
- March 14 – Deirdre Korobacz: Motifs: Images Between Darkness and Light. Exploring the Plant Motif through Colour.
- April 18 – Geraldine Devas: Exploring our Life Story Creatively - Working with Biography
- May 16 - Konrad Korobacz - Seeking Correspondence: The Akashic Record and Geological Time. Paleo-anthropology (phylogeny) and the Evolution of Consciousness (Ontology)
- June 20 - Beverley Clarke: Working with Charcoal
- July 18 - Sue Gould: Life Movement - Eurythmy and our sense of movement.
- August 15 – Riana Vanderbyl: The Living Word - Speech and Drama
- September 19 - Michael Lester
- October 17– Iris Curteis: Storytelling and Liminal Space.
- November 21 - Gillian Rogers: Steiner's Christology.
- December 19th - Group Exhibition: Creative and Artistic expression (painting, sculpture, drawing, poetry, spoken word, music, song).